

THIS IS FORCE HOCKEY

STAY CONNECTED

FARGOFORCE.COM

Whitney Baumgartner: Marketing & PR Manager

whitneyb@fargoforce.com

Phone: (701) 356.7645

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Tuesday, September 23, 2013

FARGO FORCE TEAM UP WITH CULLY'S KIDS

FARGO, ND –The Fargo Force have teamed up with the Cullen Children's Foundation for Cully's Kids Night on Saturday, November 2 at Scheels Arena. The promotional night will be focused around helping to raise money for the foundation at the game.

The Cullen Children's Foundation was established in 2003 by NHL hockey player and Moorhead native, Matt Cullen and his wife Bridget. Matt played for the Moorhead Spuds in high school and went on to play collegiate hockey at St. Cloud State University. He currently plays for the Nashville Predators in the NHL. The foundation's mission is to provide financial resources to organizations that support children's healthcare needs, with an emphasis on cancer.

"We are very excited to team up with Cully's Kids", said General Manager Jon Kram about the promotion. "The Fargo Force are always looking for ways we can tie into the Fargo-Moorhead community and give back and with the Cullen Children's Foundation, it's just a perfect fit".

The team will wear custom Cully's Kids jerseys with a live auction taking place at the end of the game with proceeds going back to the foundation. The Fargo Force has also agreed to donate $1 of every reserved seat ticket sold, $1.50 if the game is a sell-out. Cully's Kids will be giving away the logoed pucks at the door the night of the game.

"We are pleased that the Fargo Force are showing support of Cully's Kids by helping to put on this promotion", said Matt Cullen. "Unfortunately, I will be unable to attend the game that evening because I have a game myself, but I will be sending along a thank you video to fans for being in attendance".

Local non-profit Hope, Inc. will also take part in the night's festivities with having a Hope, Inc. child come out at the start of the game waving the Fargo Force flag and bringing out the game puck for the ceremonial drop. The non-profit group will also be organizing a sled hockey game immediately following warm-ups and during the first intermission.

Fans can purchase single game tickets to Cully's Kids Night on Nov. 2 by stopping by the Scheels Arena box office Monday-Friday from 11am-6pm, by calling 701.364.3672, online at tickets300.com or by calling 866.300.8300.

For any media related questions, please contact Whitney Baumgartner at 701.356.7645 or through email at whitneyb@fargoforce.com.

###